

The ACP Act Now: Utah initiative unites a broad coalition of 53 partner cities, community-based organizations, and trusted institutions in partnership with EducationSuperHighway, the national non-profit with a mission to close the broadband affordability gap.

ALL 53 ORGANIZATIONS PARTICIPATING IN THE INITIATIVE:

5G Alliance Utah	Lumen Technologies
AT&T Inc.	MIB West Partners
BitStream Communications, Inc.	Northwestern Band of the Shoshone Nation
Blue Star Families, Utah Chapter	National Telecommunications and Information Administration
Center for Economic Opportunity & Belonging	Open Doors
Centro Hispano	Public Service Commission of Utah
Children's Service Society of Utah	Senawave Communications
City of Eureka	Southeastern Utah Association of Local Governments
City of Lehi	STRATA Networks
City of Providence	Town of Brighton
City of Salt Lake City	Town of Springdale
City of Springville Library	Uintah Basin Association of Governments
City of Tremonton Public Library	Utah Education and Telehealth Network
Comcast	United Way of Utah County
Community Action Partnership of Utah	Utah Broadband Center
Community Action Services & Food Bank	Utah Commission on Aging
Community Resources	Utah Community Action
County of Cache	Utah Department of Workforce Services
County of Davis Health Department	Utah Governor's Office of Planning and Budget
County of Davis School District	Utah Library Division
County of Millard	Utah Paiute Tribal Housing Authority
County of San Juan School District	Utah State Board of Education
Direct Communications	Utah State University
Echo Hawk & Olsen	Utah Women, Infants and Children
English Skills Learning Center	Wi-Fiber
FirstDigital Communications, LLC
Five County Association of Government
InfoWest	