

of the digital divide by connecting 18 million American households that have access to the Internet but can't afford to connect.

MISSISSIPPI?

MISSISSIPPI

How big is the broadband affordability gap in

HOUSEHOLDS

POPULATION

259,837

680,772

NATIONAL

47M

18.1M

58%

The broadband affordability gap makes up of Mississippi's digital divide The federal government is investing in the nation's largest-ever broadband affordability program.

$20B

17%

...but as few as of households in Mississippi who are eligible for the Emergency Broadband Benefit program have enrolled.

access to the Internet but can't afford to connect.

259,837 Mississippi households have

America's unconnected households

7.1M

Households without available

broadband infrastructure

18.1M Households with available broadband infrastructure that

BROADBAND AFFORDABILITY GAP

cannot afford to connect

46.9M

Population with available broadband infrastructure that

THE DIGTIAL DIVIDE

Percent of population Black or African American Latinx America's most unconnected National America's most unconnected National communities

13.4%

21.1%

Disproportionately impacts

Black and Latinx Americans.

27.6%

18.5%

Percent of unconnected households 27.4% 13.3%

Less than high school graduate or equivalency

Below 200% poverty threshold

Largest in our

44.9%

communities

Percent of households poorest communities.

31.3%

Significantly higher for Americans with less than a high school education.

High school graduate, some college or associate's broadband affordability gap. To seize this moment we must: Leverage data to identify unconnected households

Launch adoption programs to help households sign-up for federal broadband apartment buildings

programs and home broadband service

Deploy free Wi-Fi to low-income

EducationSuperHighway is a national nonprofit with the mission to close the digital divide for the 18 million households that have access to the Internet but can't afford to connect. We focus on America's most unconnected communities, where more than 25% of people don't have Internet.

www.nohomeleftoffline.org

